

LIST YOUR VALUES

Your career plan must be in line with your personal values. If not, you risk creating an imbalance between your professional aspirations and your individual views.

Below is a non-exhaustive list of values for you to use as a reference. List the 10 to 20 that you feel are most important to you and rank them in order of importance.

List of values

Acceptance	Curiosity	Peace
Accomplishment	Depth	Performance
Achievement	Determination	Reciprocity
Altruism	Dignity	Resilience
Ambition	Discernment	Respect
Authenticity	Discipline	Satisfaction
Authority	Discovery	Security
Balance	Discretion	Sense of belonging
Caring	Diversity	Sensitivity
Celebrity	Duty	Serenity
Challenge	Empathy	Sharing
Closeness	Equality	Simplicity
Coherence	Equity	Sincerity
Compassion	Excellence	Solidarity
Compliance	Family	Stability
Comfort	Financial Independence	Success
Commitment	Firmness	Tradition
Continuity	Flexibility	Tranquillity
Contribution	Freedom	Understanding
Control	Generosity	Unity
Conviction	Growth	Usefulness
Conviviality	Happiness	Trustworthiness
Cooperation	Honesty	Truth
Creativity	Independence	Vision
Credibility	Justice	Wealth