LETTER FROM THE U.S. EMBASSY IN PARIS

---

Embassy of the United States of America

Madame, Monsieur :

Pour ceux qui souhaitent effectuer un stage aux Etats-Unis, l'obtention d'un visa « J-1 » est requis avant de partir pour les Etats-Unis. Le visa « J-1 » est obligatoire pour tout stagiaire, même si le stage est pour une durée de moins de 90 jours et n'est pas rémunéré. La seule exception qui existe est pour les stagiaires aux Nations Unies, qui peuvent faire le stage avec un visa B1 avec une annotation spécifique. Ceux qui arrivent aux Etats-Unis en n'ayant pas le type de visa correct risquent de se voir refuser l'entrée et d'être renvoyés immédiatement dans leur pays d'origine.

Cordialement,

LET US BE YOUR NETWORK!

Parenthèse does not impose a specific internship or employer. We will help you and guide you, but you are also completely free to do your own research, consider different offers, negotiate the mission and the compensation directly with the American employers and choose the internship that best suits you.

You don't know where to start? You can't manage to find a good host organization? We'll be happy to help you, free of charge. Contact us!

Finding your Internship is not mission impossible! Our experience shows us that participants find their paid internship within 3 to 6 weeks of active search. Follow our guidelines below.

BEGIN BY DRAFTING YOUR RESUME (CV)

USE THE FOLLOWING EXAMPLE TO WRITE YOUR COVER LETTER

Please include the letter in the body of your email instead of sending it as an attachment. If you send an email to an employer with only two attachments (your letter and your CV), it will most likely end up in the trash.

It is essential to mention that you are intending to apply for a J-1 Intern visa through CIEE's BridgeUSA program and that, as part of this program, CIEE will act as your legal sponsor. Moreover, companies may also be interested to learn that your health insurance is included in your program.

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to explore the possibility of participating in a paid training program in your company. As a French student pursuing a degree in Export Marketing, I am actively looking for a practical training in a company abroad. My training falls within my University's graduation requirements and must start in September for at least 6 months.

In regards to my legal eligibility to train with your organization, I would be participating in the J-1 Visa Internship USA program, sponsored by the Council on International Educational Exchange [CIEE]. (www.ciee.org)

As my sponsor, CIEE is authorized by the U.S. government to issue the necessary documentation for me to obtain a J-1 visa, which allows me to train legally in the U.S. for up to 12 months. I will also arrive with my sponsor-provided, full coverage health insurance. Please see the following link for the details of this private health insurance: <http://www.ciee.org/insurance/>

J-1 Visa participants are exempt from the following taxes:

Social Security & Medicare Tax (FICA)

Federal Unemployment Tax (FUTA)

Further information on tax exemptions in the J-1 program can be found on CIEE's website: <https://www.ciee.org/in-the-usa/research-training/intern-professional-training/resources/pay-and-taxes>

By participating in the J-1 Visa program, you will be contributing to the United States' cultural exchange and public diplomacy policies and will benefit from the support of CIEE for the duration of the internship.

I look forward to hearing from you soon and I strongly believe that my motivation, personal skills and studies will allow me to excel in a training position with you.

Sincerely,

IN BETWEEN THE LINES

In regards to my legal eligibility to train with your organization, I would be participating in the J-1 Visa Internship USA program, sponsored by the Council on International Educational Exchange (CIEE).
 ✓ No need to hire an immigration attorney. I will be arriving with my visa in hand! You can hire (www.ciee.org) me and pay me legally.

As my sponsor, CIEE is authorized by the U.S. government to issue the necessary documentation for me to obtain a J-1 visa, which allows me to train legally in the U.S. for up to 12 months. I will also arrive with my sponsor-provided, full coverage health insurance. Please see the following link for the details of this private health insurer for: <http://thehealthpackageofyourchoice.com>. I will have my own health insurance!

J-1 Visa participants are exempt from the following taxes:

Social Security & Medicare Tax (FICA)

✓ Federal Unemployment Tax (FUTA)

Fewer declarations, less paperwork, less hassle! Financial advantages.

Further information on tax exemptions in the J-1 program can be found on CIEE's website:

<https://www.ciee.org/in-the-usa/research-training/intern-professional-training/resources/pay-and-taxes>

✓ Cultural aspect: contribute to U.S. international and public diplomacy efforts (BridgeUSA).
 By participating in the J-1 Visa program, you will be contributing to the United States' cultural exchange and public diplomacy policies and will benefit from the support of CIEE for the duration of the internship.

Are you looking to get your foot in the door for a Non-Profit or political career? Being an intern for Clean Water Action may be the professional stepping stone that you're looking for!

For 50 years Clean Water Action has succeeded in winning some of the nation's most important environmental protections through grassroots organizing, expert policy research and political advocacy focused on holding elected officials accountable to the public. Candidates who possess a strong commitment to environmental, social, and political justice will be well suited for this role.

Our staff consists of committed, professional highly skilled activists. Interns receive extensive training and continuing support on issue knowledge and campaign skills. All interns receive regular updates given by political or environmental authorities or from within our organization. We have a strong and early focus on career development that involves travel and management training opportunities.

Our grassroots political organizers and interns speak to local citizens about state issues, informing and educating the public, building support and channeling that support into
